Can the season really have reached the half-way point?

It is now July, which means we have reached the mid-point of the cricket season and, indeed, have passed that point as far as the Colts section are concerned. Where has it gone and why does the summer have to be so short - answers, on a postcard, please

As mentioned in previous newsletters, the purpose of this particular column is not to analyse the fortunes of our respective sides but, and with the colts season about to end, It is worth reporting that the under 15b side have been our most successful team and could be promoted whilst the under 17s are also doing well.

As for the senior sides, the 2nd and 3rd XIs are the best placed of our Saturday teams whilst the Sunday Development side won every game in June. There is still a long way to go, of course, but solid foundations have been laid and, delighted to report, that all five senior sides won their games on the last day of the month!

By now you will almost certainly be aware that Paul Maxwell has resigned as our Chair and we would like to place on record our sincere thanks for all of his efforts, not just since he became Chair, but for the work he has done for the OWCC over a number of years. He, Caroline and Kenny have become an Integral part of the Club over that period of time and we are indebted to all three of them

Vice-Chair, Jeff Mascarenhas, has now stepped up to become 'Acting Chair' for the rest of the season whilst Laurence Allen has been added to the committee so that we have a full complement of eight members

July is a busy and important month for the OWCC, hosting as it does our annual cricket week starting on Sunday July 22nd with President's Day and Jasper Gundry-White, our President, would like to Invite you to this important occasion, for him, and the rest of us

The day will also be a celebration of 21 years of Colts cricket at Hayes Hill, a remarkable achievement and without which the Club would not be the force it is today, The cricket on the day will feature three T20 sides, two of them being skippered by Michael Mitchell, the current 1st XI captain and Jonathan Rodda, his vice-captain, both of whom have graduated through our colts section

More details can be found on our excellent website, lovingly put together by the equally excellent Laurence Allen

President's day is followed by cricket week itself, with games on each and every day, so, if you want to play, please make yourself available - availability boards will be posted on the club notice-boards. 'Availability' is also the key word for the rest of the season, particularly as we are now coming into the prime holiday season

Club Captain Alex Forbes who, together with Laki Kasturiratne does such a wonderful job in co-ordinating our sides, tells me that some weeks we have a surplus of players and others a dearth, so please do your best to ensure that the former is more often the case than the latter

On June 22nd a number of Old Wilsonians attended the funeral of Peter Hubert whom, as Colin Smith put it, was a member of "our best ever Sunday side." But he was more than that, a really lovely man who was well respected by anyone who was fortunate to meet him

On a very difficult day for them his family took time to talk to us and I know from my conversations with his eldest daughter, Susannah, that they were genuinely touched and comforted by the responses to Peter's death expressed by Old Wilsonians - the club were even mentioned in one of the eulogies which, along with other memories of Peter, will appear in the next edition of 'NOW', the magazine of the Old Wilsonians' Association

Discovery of the month

Whilst sitting in the away dressing room at Whitstable – much to the annoyance of some members of the 1st XI – and listening to sounds emanating from the team's ghetto blaster, a weekly feature of their warming up routine, I suddenly realised that the flat upstairs to me must be occupied by at least one member of our premier side!

A BAD DAY AT THE OFFICE Orpington 118 1st XI 81

Orpington, having been promoted from Division Three last year, arrived at Hayes on the back of a good run at the end of a damp week which produced a green wicket and induced our skipper to insert them, and our bowlers did all that was asked of them and our visitors were dismissed for 118 with the penultimate ball of their 50 overs.

At one point they were 79 for 8 but a late rally pushed them over 100 – and beyond – as we failed to turn the screw. Even so, the bowlers could be pleased with their performance, Guy, Doug, Dave and 'Mitch' in particular bowling economically, taking 8 wickets between them and conceding 77 runs in 40 overs

May had been a good month for the 1st XI – three victories and a last over defeat from the four games played – and the bowlers had certainly done their bit to see June off to a good start

However, we were then bowled out for 81 in 35.1 overs with only four players getting into double figures and a top score of just 17. As already mentioned the conditions were not perfect for batting and it was a bowlers wicket but, and as the Orpington lower order had showed, with application it was possible to score runs with the right mind-set

Perhaps it is best to simply put this down to a bad day at the office and move on to the next game

DROPPING CATCHES PROVES COSTLY Sidcup 4th XI 166 for 8 5th XI 103

A much changed 5th XI this week, with Andy Steel, Jon Larkman and Stephen Millward all making their season's debuts. We were 'out-colted' (sic) by Sidcup, who had six colts to our four

We won the toss and inserted Sidcup who put 167 on the board for 8 wickets. All of our five bowlers did well but, and unfortunately, Stephen Millward twisted his knee at the end of his sixth over, which put pressure on Rohan Mehra (who bowled well again), Nathan Carpenter, Josh Merchant and Matt Carruthers, who all coped well. Our main problem of dropping easy catches continues to be costly and it is something we need to improve upon.

We scored in excess of a 100, with Andy Steel batting well at the top of the order and scoring 25, and a mature knock from Nathan Carpenter, who scored 23 over 20 odd overs to keep our innings together. Unfortunately we lost too many wickets early on, but we are getting ourselves into positions in which we can win games and it is only a matter of time before we convert these into wins. An enjoyable game and we continue to see lots of positives

GOOD START FIZZLES OUT Whitstable 290 for 7, 1st XI 228

Many years ago, when men were men and women were grateful, we used to play Whitstable in an all day Sunday fixture thanks to the good offices of Dave Wakeford, who had moved down to this seaside resort and offered his considerable cricketing skills to the local club, and highlights of previous visits include seeing Stuart Forbes and Chris Cowell open the batting and driving Ian Forbes' car home following a rained off fixture when he had drunk a few too many scotch and gingers- surely not!

Dean Langton, the Whitstable scorer, remembers David from his own playing days. We were now here for a Kent League fixture on perhaps the smallest ground in our division where 270 is probably a par score and our hosts reached 290 for 7, thanks mainly to a second wicket stand of 240, after which we took five wickets for 39, Josh Lawrence finishing with 4 for 43

In reply we lost an early wicket but Velson and Malinda then added 143 for the second and when the latter was out, for 77, we were well on course for victory, the score being 155 for two in the 30th over – at this stage of their innings Whitstable had been 117 for 1, so we were well over half-way there. Velson was well set and all that was needed was for the rest of the batting to support the good foundations he and Malinda had established

Sadly this did not happen and when Velson was sixth out for 72 with the score on 197, we were losing our way and, little more than five overs later, had been dismissed for 228, with nine players contributing just 47 between them

The game saw another debutant in the shape of Syd Sherlock, who was somewhat unfortunate to be brought on to bowl when their second wicket stand was in full swing, but he hit the first ball he received for a single when batting and contributed six of those 47 runs already mentioned

Doug, on the other hand, contributed 9, including a straight six which must be an early contender for the 'champagne moment of the season. – I told you it was a small ground!

Man of the match: Velson – badly in need of runs, he made the most of a good batting wicket and took the initiative following Malinda's dismissal.

THAT'S FOUR WINS IN SIX GAMES 3rd XI 177 for 7, Hayes 4th XI 130 for 6

The 3rd XI had first use of the Hawes Down pitch and posted a very competitive total built around a well paced 60 from Rob McEwen, who was well supported by Andy Steel (27) whilst Dan Nicholls continued his fine start to the season with a brisk 25.

Graham Morrison's 3-33 put a break on the scoring as 200 was definitely in site, ably assisted by Arnav Barry's three well held catches in the outfield. But the flurry of wickets was counteracted with Kevin Carruthers unbeaten 20 at the end as the 3s posted 177.

The new ball proved to be the difference between the two sides as the opening spell from Laki Kasturiratne and Tom Sullivan restricted Hayes to two runs an over in the first set of 10. Carruthers then took a superb catch, skied miles in the air and taken neatly over his shoulder, to get rid of opener Flinn. Steve Cotton (49) and Leo Webster (35) then briefly threatened to take the game back in the direction of Hayes until the latter was bowled by Carruthers in a fine piece of leg spin bowling that pitched middle and leg and hit the off bail.

Carruthers ended up taking 3 for 44 and was well supported by fellow spinner Howard Abbett, who kept things tight bowling down the hill with 2 for 19. With the target miles out of reach, it was all about wickets and points for the OWs and it could have been a lot more than the six they did take.

On the whole, solid batting and bowling from a team that had five changes from the week before. That's four wins in the first six games and helps us keep pace with the league leaders

TIME TO STOP BAD HABITS Broadstairs 300 for 3, 1st XI 216

Another long journey – the longest of the year – against a team who, together with Upchurch, are starting to pull away at the top of Division Two

As last week another good batting wicket and, as last week, 'Mitch' lost the toss – there are some things that are out of your control – but when Malinda took a wicket with the first ball of the game, life seemed just a little bit sweeter

But, as last week, we were again put to the sword by a second wicket stand, this time of 148. Even so, there were only 14 overs remaining when that second wicket fell and we were entitled to believe that, with some steady bowling, we could restrict Broadstairs to around 250

What followed was a third wicket stand of 130 in 12 overs between their, now well set, opener, who finished on 144 not out, and a whirlwind 59 from a player we know of old who went in at an ideal time for his particular talents and our last 9 overs went for 114 runs

We needed a good start and got it, as a rejuvenated Velson and Jonathan raced to 55 in the first nine overs before the latter was caught behind for 32. Velson and Malinda continued the good work and when one of the Broadstairs supporters came out of the pavilion to see the score-board reading 101 for 1, and thought about getting the drinks, he realised that only 16 overs had been completed, the visitors were well on course for victory and he trudged, disappointedly, back to the bar

However, and sadly, when the drinks interval did arrive nine overs later, we had slumped to 125 for 6 and the drinks provider's demeanour had changed from one of resentful resignation to one of joy

Chris Scott, another player in need of runs, strove manfully to repair the damage before holing out for 31, but it was the latter batsmen, Josh Lawrence (25) and Dave Ellicott-White (22) who dug in to at least ensure that we got our third batting point

Another disappointing visit to the seaside against an admittedly good side who will probably be promoted this season but, and as last week, it was a game we could and should have won. We seem to have got into the habit of conceding a lot of runs in the last ten overs or so, a habit we need to get out of..... and quickly

SKIPPER STEERS US HOME Shooters Hill 3rd XI 153 for 8, 5th XI 154 for 8

A much changed 5's team, with Ollie Willis making his senior debut, and 'Chunk' and 'JD' making their season's debuts.

We bowled well, with Old Shoots being 78 for 2 at drinks, so our bowlers did well to claw them back to a total of 153. Well done to Stan Sherlock, Matt Carruthers, Ollie Willis and Nathan Carpenter, who all bowled a good line and length and were aided by 'Chunk' and Stephen Millward - 153 was certainly gettable .

We started poorly and slumped to 6 for 3, and the total looked a long way off. Well done to 'Chunk', who scored a quick 44 including a couple of sixes, and 5 fours in a counterattacking innings, with Stan Sherlock playing a solid innings around him. 'Chunk' then went steering a half tracker to first slip followed by a 'JD' first baller - welcome debut boy

Ollie Willis added 23 with Stan Sherlock and again stopped the Old Shoots momentum but, at 89 for 6, the odds looked in Shoots favour, but we had Stan well set. He passed 50 and added 63 with Alex Forbes and we were within two of victory before, going for glory, Stan was caught at deep mid off with a great catch. Shoots then took another wicket, with Stephen Millward falling for zero, and Derek Seston, batting for the first time in 40 years, survived a close lbw call before Alex Forbes steered us to victory.

Well done to everyone - we won this one in the field where we saved 30-40 runs. Great contributions from the four colts, who all did well. And a big thanks to the seniors. who all led by example; a good win

WE MUST LEARN OUR LESSONS Ashford Town 206 for 9, 1st XI 161

After a couple of long away trips the 1st XI were hoping it was going to be a case of 'home sweet home' as they entertained Ashford Town at Hayes, a side rooted to the bottom of the table and winless so far this season

Ashford won the toss, elected to bat and, at 61 for 4, we were certainly in the driving seat on a wicket where a score well in excess of 200 seemed essential for any chance of victory. A fifth wicket stand of 109 then followed but we dropped one of the participants when he had only a handful – he went on to finish 67 not out – and although we eventually broke the partnership our fielding fell apart yet again in the latter stages of their innings, see also the reports of the Whitstable and Broadstairs games, and they just passed the 200 mark; which should not have been enough!

Josh Lawrence finished with 4 for 39, his best figures of the season, and although three of his scalps were later order batsmen, he also trapped their top scorer lbw for 72.

Our reply started disastrously when Cameron Jones was bowled round his legs without a run on the board and worse was to follow when Malinda was caught at slip for 3, but there was no need to panic as we had plenty of batting to come! However when Matt Abbett and Chris Scott both gave gentle catches to grateful fielders, and Jonathan Rodda was trapped lbw, yet again, we were rocking at 49 for 5 as Syd Sherlock joined his skipper

Both batted sensibly and, to be honest, demonstrated the poor quality of that which had gone before, and, at the drinks interval, we had reached 90 and were beginning to get on top, but Syd was out-smarted five overs later to be stumped for a commendable 27

This was only Syd's second game for the 1st XI but he was not phased at all and demonstrated why he has been scoring so many runs in the 2nd XI all season and that he is also capable of doing so at this level. Syd did not bowl today but has the potential to become a genuine all-rounder at this level

A lot of pressure was now put on our young skipper's shoulders as he realised that he needed to play a major innings, but he had added only a further two following Syd's departure when he mis-timed a hook and was caught on the square leg boundary for 33, and we were 111 for 6

The tail then added a further 50 and proved that there was absolutely no menace in the wicket and made you wonder why the top five batsmen had only made 39 between them

So are the 1st XI in crisis?

No; they certainly need to win a game – they have now lost four on the bounce – but their early season form, and resilience, shows that they are a good Division Two side and that is their level at the moment. After the Broadstairs game it was felt that we had a run of three potential victories to look forward to, and although we fell at the first fence there are still two left to hurdle, so let's end the month of June on a high, learn the lessons from the past four games and resolve to put things right

There are still 10 games left to play but we must learn the lessons of our defeats, which sometimes teaches us more than victories

Jones Rodda.J Thotiwilage Abbett.M Scott Mitchell (Syd)Sherlock Lawrence Ellicott-White Forbes.D Hannah

Man of the match: 'Mitch' – did not shirk from the challenge of digging his side out of a hole, but, sadly, did not succeed

1ST XI RE-DISCOVER THEIR MOJO Gore Court 138, 1st XI 140 for 4

On a day when all five sides were victorious – congratulations to all concerned and thanks to Alex Forbes for treating us to two celebratory jugs – the 1st XI re-discovered their mojo following a disappointing June up to this point

Opponents Gore Court batted first and lost wickets on a regular basis from the start, with only one major contribution from their batting line-up as we dismissed them for just 138 in 38.4 overs. We held most of our catches, seven in total, and those that were dropped – only one from memory – did not prove to be expensive

Guy Hannah took two, a particular good one at backward square leg, and the final one to end their innings. Syd Sherlock, adding wicket-keeping duties to his list of talents, started the whole thing off when their opener 'feathered' through to his grateful gloves, Tom Finan, yet another debutant from the colts section, took his time and held his nerve to dismiss their stubborn number three, Dave Ellicott-White remembered the value of being alert when you are bowling to hold a neat caught and bowled whilst Chris Scott and 'Mitch' reminded us that they both have a safe pair of hands

Syd also executed a run out, which was the last thing Gore Court needed, and the innings closed shortly before 2-30, inducing the umpires to declare that a leisurely tea was in order and play would recommence at 3-15

Our reply got off to a perfect start as their opening bowler delivered his first two balls way past the leg stump and when he did discover a legitimate ball he simply fed Velson's glance to the boundary with his next two balls and repeated the gift with the last ball to see us 14 for 0 at the end of the first over.

Things then settled down a little but we had still raced to 32 by the penultimate ball of the fifth over, which Velson dispatched for another boundary before playing an injudicious hook to the final ball of the over which he should simply have left alone to be caught for 25

Malinda and Jonathan then took the score to 79 in the 14th over when Malinda, who had hit four 4s and a six, was the second player to be caught when he had reached 25.

Jonathan followed eight runs later for 36, and regular readers of these reports will not need to inquire as to the method of his dismissal!

This brought together Josh Lawrence and Chris Scott and, with both players on 0 and more than 50 runs needed, our host's thought the game was not over. Josh is not a natural number 4 – his forte is coming in at 7 or 8 when we bat first with 10 overs to go when, in particular, his (usually) fine judgement of a quick single unsettles opposing sides and gives us the momentum we require at such a stage of the game

He did not bowl today and it was a brave decision by the skipper to promote him up the batting order influenced, no doubt, by the fact that we were chasing a small total, but it has to be said that Josh struggled somewhat and it was no surprise when he was caught behind for 4.

Chris, meanwhile, had got off the mark with a glorious cover drive to the boundary and was then joined by Matthew Abbett who, so far, has not demolished bowling attacks in the way that he had done so 12 months ago. However, this was the day to put that right as he raced to 33 – including three 6s and three 4s in 16 minutes to finish the game. Chris finished on 13 not out and his time at the crease will have done him good.

So the 1st XI came good on the last day of the month and our most prolific batsmen did what he does best. We now start the second round of games and if we can repeat our performances in May, and rectify the night-mare of June, then we can capture that third place for the second consecutive season

Man of the match: Malinda – took the first three wickets and batted with authority

TWO ON THE BOUNCE FOR THE FIVES Beckenham 5th XI 168 for 8, 5th XI 169 for 6

We were playing bottom of the table Beckenham on an artificial wicket with 10 players on a ridiculously hot day, so what could go wrong !

We won the toss and decided to bowl. Alex McCrossan and Fraser Baxendine bowled well and placed Beckenham under early pressure, reducing them to 12 for 3 after 10 overs. The Beckenham skipper played well and put our first change partnership of Josh Merchant and Matt Carruthers under pressure and both responded well. Finally Nathan Carpenter and Teddy Tahir, bowling spin, kept it tight as Beckenham attacked well near the end .

It was good to see Alex McCrossan bowling well and good that we have a spin option in Teddy Tahir. We fielded well up to the 25 overs mark and were then slightly off the pace, which isn't surprising as our colts get used to playing the longer game. We gave away 27 wides, as anything down the leg-side was called.

Batting wise we tried 'Prem' as an opener which worked wonders, as he got into line and punished the poor ball , cutting and hooking well in his 55 not out and everyone else batted around him . Also a good innings from Nathan Carpenter, who scored 35 before being bowled by a beautiful in swinging ball at 155 for 4. We then lost another couple of wickets as the middle order tried to bludgeon the winning runs. Extras came to 53, of which 47 were wides, the majority being 2 wides down leg and being missed by the 'keeper.

All of the colts from both teams performed well and it will be interesting in a couple of years time to see both teams progress .

Well done to everyone on our second win on the bounce as they all contributed to the win Laurence Allen kept well, taking three catches behind the stumps, and well done to Prem and Nathan, who batted well, and Fraser and Alex, for leading the attack. Alex Forbes

Corkage will be charged per bottle	@£8.00

All moneys are to be received by the OWA at least 1 month before event. We politely request there be no decorations on the honours boards. No use of party poppers, spray string, table confetti or similar. If the club-house-bar and/or kitchen are left in need of cleaning, the appropriate deposit will be forfeited.

NB: The Association relies heavily on hiring out the Clubhouse to increase its revenue from which we all benefit. The above outlines our terms and conditions, so please pass on to anyone your think may be interested or, indeed, yourself – many Old Wilsonians have already held functions in our Clubhouse.
