BETTER PERFORMANCE SPOILT BY LACK OF PROFESSIONALISM Michendenians 4 1st XI 4

After a string of poor results and only one reasonable performance – a 1-0 defeat by Aloysians – in the last month, the 1st XI returned to something like their normal level of play in this away game; normal, that is, until the last 15 minutes when we somehow managed to squander a four goal lead!

With 'Sponge' and Adam Goddard back after their Barbados break, 'Yosser' reverting to midfield and 'Kendo' sweeping, the side looked well balanced and determined to put things right to the extent that everybody turned up on time, and remembered their kit, and we arrived at the ground 40 minutes before kick-off, allowing plenty of time for a team talk, warm-up etc, important aspects that have been sadly neglected recently.

From the kick-off the 1sts showed their determination to get to the ball first, win 50/50s and talk to encourage each other. A string of early corners were forced and this sustained period of pressure midway through the half saw RollyTownson hit a post.

With the wind behind us it was, we hoped, only a matter of time before the first goal came and it did so courtesy of ASHLEY DYER, and this was followed by a second well worked goal by NEIL KENDRICK, who hit a firmly struck shot into the corner from the edge of the box.

Turning round two goals up, the 1st XI resumed where they had left off and GRAHAM HUGHES scored a fine individual goal when he took the ball on from 30 yards out, beat three or four defenders and slotted home from the edge of the six yard box. MICK PILGRIM then converted an easy chance from a corner to put us 4-0 ahead.

With only 15 minutes left the side should have settled for a 4-0 win but, instead, the midfield pushed too far forward looking for more goals and, following some stupid mistakes, including a bad back pass, unnecessary fouls and poor marking, Minchendenians pulled the score back to 4-3.

The referee then gave them a controversial penalty to bring the scores level and we promptly went down their end and 'scored' again only to have the 'goal' disallowed for alleged foul play.

This was a good performance from the 1st XI but, clearly, we must be more professional and close down opponents when we are winning with only 10 to 15 minutes left. We must not give the ball away, opponents cannot score if they do not have it, but, hopefully, we have now turned the corner and will not make the same mistakes again. Mick Pilgrim

A GAME TO FORGET 1st XI 1 Old Latymerians 3

Following last week's fine performance, this was a game to forget for most of the 1st XI. They took the lead, through LES SIMNER, but, against quite a useful side, they needed to play a lot better than they did to win.

O.W. SPOTLIGHT This week Mike "I ain't got no money' Kendrick

Yes, this week Mike Kendrick, of whom many people have said many things, most of them unpleasant. Here is a man who is not really interested in football – he thinks extra time is a bar extension! Mike is vic-captain of the 1st XI and it is a widely held view that the term "vice" is more applicable to him than anyone else.

Out of the Dave Cohen stable, he can, and frequently does, get paralytic upright. This is due to his large feet. Mike's brother, Paul, is well-known at the Club and Mike says that Paul is the better footballer. This is hardly a compliment to Paul who is, incidentally, a surprisingly nice bloke, especially when you consider who is brother is!

Mike is a great friend of referees and often stops to remind them during a game, whereupon they frequently ask for his autograph in return. He served with the R.A.F in Kenya after leaving school and has a limited, but filthy, knowledge of Swahili. This accounts for his rarely used nick- name - "Sambo the Peanut King." Joking apart (who's joking?) Mike did represent Kenya at soccer and skippered them on their first every visit to the Belgian Congo, as it was then. If you ask him he will probably tell you about it, although it is unlikely you will need to ask.

Mike is well-known in Cecil Way, where he lives, as 'The Chief Bar Steward at Old Wilsonians.' He runs the bar with great efficiency and a pint every ten minutes. As vice-captain of the 1st XI he makes a great contribution to the selection meetings, which comprise of 5/- (25p) in the beer kitty and a constant wail of "Please don't drop me Dave" (Cohen), the skipper.

Mike is skipper of the Cricket Club's 1st XI and has put me in as high as No.8. Good bloke, I thought, until I found out we only had six players. He also looks after the cricket gear, which accounts for his strange style of dress – spats and cricket pads. Nothing else, just spats and ……. Mike's wife, Ann, apart from being an expert at recognising disguised voices on the 'phone, also helps a great deal with the work at the Club

Finally I should say that Mike is currently one of the most active and popular members of the OWs. His efforts bring a lot of pleasure to most of us and I hope he gets us much out of it as we do. Long may his tankard symbols gleam. Bob Bevan

One other interesting piece of news in this edition was the virtual command:
Send trading stamps to Dave Cunningham

Twenty five years later it's welcome back to Dave who, presumably, can give us an explanation!

ALL OUR TODAYS

1ST XI REDISCOVER TASTE FOR AFA CUP 1st XI 2 Old Ignatians 0 - after extra time

The 1st XI progressed through to the next round of the AFA cup with a hard fought win over a hard working Ignations. The 1's started slowly and Eglon was forced to tip over from a shot from the edge of the box but, after 25 minutes, the side started to settle and control the game.

Sellman was released in the right hand channel and, with the 'keeper to beat, he narrowly put the ball over, and Simmons had a goal bound volley blocked. The half finished 0-0, with the 1's knowing they had to do more.

The second half was far better, with the 1st XI controlling the game; it was a case of not finishing the chances, as Sellman, Parkinson and Simmons missed one on ones with the goalkeeper and the game finished 0-0.

Five minutes into extra time came the key moment of the game came, when Eglon made an excellent save and the 1's immediately broke through via Giles and CHILDS, who smartly finished from the edge of the box to make it 1-0, and the game became safe when SIMMOPNS lobbed the 'keeper to make it 2-0. Jamie Parkinson went close to making it 3-0, but managed to miss from three yards with an open goal in front of him!

After a poor start this was a hard fought win, and all credit to Ignations, who were well organised and worked hard, but the 1's need to start finishing their chances to make things easier for themselves.

EARLY GOAL PROVES DECISIVE 2nd XI 1 Old Parkonians 0

After a disappointing 4-1 loss from the previous week, it was important we got a result against a team we had already beaten earlier on in the season.

Slow starts being a regular occurrence for the 2's this season, it was a bit of a shock for all to be 1-0 up within the first 15 minutes of the game. Great running down the wing from Kieran Steadford carved open their back 4 and resulted in a square pass being given to Nick Williams, who found himself right in front of goal. Williams rightly could have gone for goal himself, but, unselfishly, laid the ball off for CHRIS KENNEDY to slot it into an empty net.

After this uncharacteristic early dominance, the opposition found their game, and this resulted in a large passage of possession for them, but with no real attacks on Deadman's goal. After a strong first half the home side held their lead and rightly came in 1-0 up.

The second half saw a host of chances for the OW's that should have killed the game off, but after these were missed by the forward line, this put added strain on the home side's back four. With expert defensive play from the centre back pairing of Rich Shaw and Tobi Olowu, many Parkonian long balls were quickly intercepted, and they had to resort to applying pressure through set pieces and several long thrown ins.

After a nervy final 20 minutes, and a handful of good saves by Deadman, the 2nd XI ran out 1-0 winners, which saw them climb up the table. Jon Howe

FIRST WIN SHOULD COME SOON Carshalton 3rd XI 5 3rd XI 3

On a very cold day in Beddington the 3rd XI arrived with high hopes of a win over a bit of a bogey side.

The game started well with some good passing and movement from the 3's which was rewarded fairly early with a strong strike from BEN NEWMAN-SAUNDERS smashing the ball past the 'keeper at close range.

What followed was pretty much the story of the game as some simple mistakes allowed the opposition to score three goals in fairly quick succession, interspersed with some good but, ultimately fruitless, play from the 3's.

Some fortune then came the 3rd XI's way in the form of a wonder free kick almost from the halfway line from JOSH MACKLEY which sailed straight into the net. At 3-2 down there was a strong feeling we would come back into the game but that was soon extinguished by another goal, putting us back to 4-2.

The second half got underway with more of the same, and an inspired substitution saw CHRIS TYLER introduced to the game whereupon he demonstrated a football master class in control and shooting, blasting the ball beyond the 'keeper's reach - 4-3

The biggest moment of the game came with 15 minutes to go as Matt Williams came together with their 'keeper in a 50-50 ball with a clash of heads, a halt to proceedings and a 999 call for stitches to head wounds on both sides. Neither Matt nor their 'keeper were able to continue.

The restart after the incident was not kind to the 3rd XI as, lacking concentration after the break, and not aware of the longer kick of the replacement 'keeper, we saw the ball fly over our heads for their portly striker to chip Ballard in goal - 5-3.

An unfortunate result as, mistakes aside, we played well and deserved more from the game. The first win should come soon, and, with it, some much needed confidence and a foundation to build on.

Ben Playford

4TH XI SHOW FIGHT TO KEEP CUP DREAM ALIVE 4th XI 2 Old Parmiterians 4th XI 1

The 4th XI went into this game high in confidence after recent strong performances. We were, however, cautious of a strong Parmiterians side and knew that consistency would be key to getting the win.

The first half was a relatively cagey affair and the 4's midfield of Panicker, Henderson and Wateridge were working hard and competing well against an equally strong midfield from the opposition. Wateridge forced a good save from the Parmit's ' keeper with a strong half volley which was probably the best chance for us. Meanwhile the back 4 were keeping a good shape and limiting the chances, and anything that did get through was comfortably dealt with by the self proclaimed "safest hands in south London," ' Chunk'

"Keep the shape and start playing more of our game" was very much the shout at half time, and we came out as the better side. The infamous Hawes Down slope was really playing into our hands and James, CEO Josh and Matt Knight were causing them more issues. James came closest , with a well taken free kick that was centimetres outside the post, but we could not break them down.

Despite this improvement, on 85 minutes disaster struck. Always keen to avoid keeping a clean sheet, 'Chunk' palmed a routine cross to the waiting Parmit's striker, who converted to surely take the game and victory back to east London.

Unfortunately, for them, you just cannot write off this 4th XI. The all or nothing approach from kick-off resulted in us winning a free kick in their half, which was cleared straight to Watson. Putting his shin pads to good use, he expertly guided the ball into the path of JAMES, and the man for the big occasion collected the ball and curled a superb strike into the top corner from 25 yards.

And we were not ready to stop there. A high press from kick-off again created chaos in the Parmit's defence, Abdou managed to get the ball through to James, who was then taken out inside the penalty area. JAMES then showed he is calmness personified and, in the 91st minute, fired the penalty into the top corner to complete the fight back.

The assault on three fronts continues and morale is high amongst the 4's boys, and the same again in the league is needed next week. Jon Knight

MASSACRE AT THE BANK Bank of England 5th XI 12 8th XI 3

With only two of the squad available for this encounter, a win was always going to be a tough ask, and this was made even tougher by being 4-0 down after 10 minutes, the result of some atrocious defending. At half-time the score was 6-1. Summary of team talk – 'this is embarrassing; we need to give them a bit more of a contest', and the first 10 minutes of the second half went to plan, but then the floodgates opened again.

In-between the opposition scoring at will, there were three cracking goals from the OWs as some great pressure from CHARLIE SELWOOD meant that he was able to lob the 'keeper. OLIVER KRAUSS then bagged a brace with two great finishes, and should have had a hat-trick. Credit is due to Roddy Trompiz and his team, who had to forfeit their AFA Cup tie to help us out.

It is now five defeats in a row for the 8th XI, but we have been in ruts like this before and know that we can pick it up. The obstacle is availability; with a squad of just 13 players, this is likely to be an ongoing issue for the foreseeable future. Kek Amankwah

A GAME OF TWISTS AND TURNS Albanians 4 2nd XI 6 (Played October 15th)

After a week where we scrapped together a team, we had a strong starting line up with an even stronger bench to hold Doug Smart on it!

Unexpectedly, the north London pitch was a good one and it was clear from the outset there were going to be a lot of chances created, with their back 4 all over the place. However, it took about 25 minutes until we broke through when Ben Giles twisted and turned the centre half and was chopped down to win a penalty. JON HOWE stepped up and slotted home comfortably and Wilson's remained on top.

In the last 15 minutes of the half there was a whole host of madness. Wilson's conceded two sloppy goals quickly, in both cases when he team failed to clear the ball. However, in no time at all Wilson's scored twice, once from a mazey run from BEN GILES and the other a 'FOXY' header from a Ben Carruthers corner.

In the second half we knew if we got the next goal we could steam ahead. And we got it after another good run from Ben Giles saw his shot saved to give 'FOXY' a tap in. However, a master class in bad defending by Stu Dunk and Rich Shaw allowed them to come back to 4-3, and then later, after another BEN GILES goal, to 5-4. There were a host of chances for the Old Boys to go clear and, finally, they did, with a quick break and cross field pass from Foxy to HOWE, who toe punted home to finish the game.

This was an unnecessarily hard fought win that takes us through to the next round of the AFA cup, and big thanks to Matt Rand and Ben Playford, who came in late to play for us. Jon Howe
