THE MASSTRICHT SUMMIT WILL MAKE TRAVELLING EASIER 2nd XI 1 Old Adeyans 4

Today, as a point of interest, happens to be the shortest day of the year – summer here we come. However, I think the weather will be slow in catching us as blizzards and a hurricane prevailed throughout the game.

To cap it all we were once again down to ten men – two games in the last four weeks have seen us in this position; something tells me that a little organisation would help!

I don't know if readers have been following the EEC summit in Maastricht but something positive did come out of it – they have agreed to slow coaches and lorries travelling on motorways down to the sensible level of 65 mph, which will surely mean quicker journey times to away games. Anyway, and before I forget, we played a game of football today!

Despite being very adept and playing skilful, exciting football, it is always a damper on a side to be a spanner short of a tool kit, but we tried; boy how we tried. We ran and ran but it was always going against us and to be only one goal down at half-time was a valiant effort and, by and large, we all gave as much as could be expected.

The second half gave us something positive to think about – Adeyans only had 45 minutes to score! No, seriously, the wind was blowing our way and it was not long before our tenacity produced the results. A glorious move, involving MALCOLM BOXALL and Mark Welfare, displaying clever and co-ordinated passing down the right, saw Malcolm slam the ball into the roof of the net.

Two minutes later a penalty was awarded against us and was duly converted and, from here on, we could not get hold of them again and they seemed to be getting the run of the referee as well, their last two goals being clearly off-side.

We all deserve a pat on the back for trying and the 2nd XI would like to take the opportunity of wishing all members a Happy Christmas and a prosperous New Year. Malcolm Boxall

FINE DISPLAY NOT REFLECTED IN RESULT 6th XI 0 Old St Mary 3

What a lovely day for a football match – a howling gale and rain. Kick with the wind was the advice, and we promptly spent 45 minutes making no use of it all.

The second half was a completely different affair, with the 6th XI making a number of promising openings only to be let down by poor finishing , with Andy Smith providing the highlight with a jinking run and shot that, he says, "scraped the bar."

But, with 15 minutes left, 'Mr Bean' dropped a back pass and we were one down. Even then Simon Corrigall had chances to score but St Mary's took full advantage of the holes left at the back and scored twice on the break,

All in all a good display by the 6th XI, especially by Bruce Murray and Lawrence Banks, that only lacked a bit of cool finishing up front. Neil Treacher

ALL OUR TODAYS

EVEN THE FOG CANNOT DENY US A CLEAN SHEET Nottsborough 0 1st XI 2

The 1st XI proved they can do it on a foggy Saturday afternoon in Kingston, and may never concede again after making it three wins in three.

After Jalen failed to get some new gloves or hair bands in the week, 'Secret Santa' and 'Simmo' got caught up telling (interesting?) stories and there were two last minute changes to the line up. Sergio came in at right-back and Jamie Parkinson into defensive midfield. We also welcomed back Josh Robinson and Jack Elliott from the States.

Nottsborough started in a famous 4-6-0 formation with both strikers looking to drop off and both wide men wanting to come inside. This initially caused a lot of problems for the 1st X1 and Nottsborough dominated possession. This pattern continued for the whole of the first half, but chances were few and far between. One move ended up with the Nottsborough left winger shooting over from the edge of the box and, after a good cross from their left-back, the Nottsborough striker should have done better.

The 1st X1 found it difficult to get a grip of the game but did look dangerous from set pieces, with Jack Elliott heading over from close range after a Wilson's corner.

The first half ended 0-0, and at half time a rousing team talk from skipper Sam Wilson meant Wilson's started the second half with much more urgency. They were closer to the Nottsborough players, and this made Wilson's look much more dangerous going forward.

The opening goal came just after the hour. A nice move involved Shaw, Akkaya, Karamath, Robinson and eventually JACK ELLIOTT, who sent the left back to the floor before rifling home from 12 yards. This was described by Oz Akkaya as 'we turned into Barcelona for one minute'.

After the opener Nottsborough started to flood forward, but the back four remained solid, winning both first and second balls. It also meant that Wilson's had a lot more space on the counter attack. Sellman failed with an audacious chip from 20 yards out when clean though, and Nick Williams went through one on one, only for the 'keeper to nick the ball from his feet.

The clincher came ten minutes from time, after a ball played into Nick Williams' feet was too enticing for the Nottsboroguh centre half, who came through the back of Williams but did not win the ball. The ball carried on, and SELLMAN found himself through on goal before coolly sliding the ball past the 'keeper. And that was how it ended; a great away performance and a clean sheet to boot. Dan Sellman

"I AM CONFIDENT THAT THE RESULTS WILL COME" Merton 6th XI 6 9th XI 2

Leaving the changing room with eight men, with two "possibles" on the way, it was safe to say that the 9th XI were not optimistic!

Starting with a 4–3–0 formation we put in 15 minutes of the best football we have played all season. Disciplined and organised, the opposition were unable to break us down but, of course, we were not a threat going forward. However with nine men (Harry Connix arriving late) it was a different story, as a long throw from Luke Curran found Connix on the left, whose cross into the box was put away by SAM BARBER at the second attempt.

The old adage that you are never more vulnerable than when you score came true when a simple long ball over the top was not dealt with and the pullback was tapped in. Twenty minutes in Bereket Jacob arrived and we now tried to adopt a 4-4-1 formation although, surprisingly, this appeared to leave us a little more vulnerable, and an excellent second was conceded.

The second half saw Merton very much on the offensive and while we conceded four more, of varying qualities, (as in we could have done better) it is safe to say that we also cleared, saved, got lucky with any number of chances on our goal. Going forward, however, we showed glimpses of being a threat and if we had just showed a bit more composure then maybe we would have got more than the HARRY CONNIX tap in from a defensive error.

An excellent effort from the all, as Hallett and Forbes organised superbly, and full backs Curran and Turner acquitted themselves very well and should be very pleased with their performances. Dhariwal was a threat on the right while Harry Smith (cramp man) put in a typical hard working skilful effort and Barber, Jacob and Connix offered the threat going forward.

The one disappointment was that, once again, Oliver Klauss became unavailable late on Saturday morning leaving us with ten. So another defeat, but we are a much better side than the results suggest, and I am confident that results will come. Neville Spencer

A GREAT PRE-CHRISTMAS PERFORMANCE 5th XI 2 Bank of England 4th XI 0

Seeking revenge after a 3-1 away loss to Bank of England earlier in the season, the 5th XI were in no mood to muck about as they kicked off on the Hayes pitch for the first time in a long while.

A five man midfield dominated from the start, Niall and Josh sitting at the base and spraying balls left and right. It became apparent early on that Fin, playing at right midfield, had their left back for toast, and chance after chance came from his great work down the right, with captain for the day and lone striker Cejay Watson just unable to force the ball home on a couple of occasions.

Bank of England had no luck at the other end, the centre half pairing of Martin "don't tell anyone I'm actually a centre half" Dunn and Elliot Tiffin winning everything on the ground and in the air, and able to calmly play out through Elliot Roberts and Glen Wheeler at full backs, who were overlapping down the wings at every opportunity. Elliot R also worked hard to get back in position, Glen not so much!

The pressure eventually told and 'Man of the match' NIAL SHERRIDAN grabbed the first goal to make it 1-0. The 5's continued to press and should have had another couple, but for some great goalkeeping - a powerful header from 'Dunny' was saved point blank and then a whipped shot by 'Doyley', that looked destined for the top corner, was clawed out.

Bank of England managed to break on us a few times but some smart stops by Matt Ballard in goal, continuing his rich vein of form, kept the score at 1-0 at half time. He even had time to pop his shoulder out, making a save and then nonchalantly pop it back in; hard as nails.

The second half was a tighter affair, the 5's still looking the more likely team to score through Christian and Fin, but aware that one mistake could let the visitors back in to the game. The 5th XI needed a bit of inspiration from somewhere to get that elusive second goal, and it came from a highly unlikely source.

Step forward Glen Wheeler. Picking the ball up just inside the Bank of England half, wide out on the left, he advances 20 yards to the edge of their box. Using 'Doyley's' run outside him as a distraction, he pulls a Ryan Giggs Man U v Arsenal FA Cup semi-final out of his box of tricks, beating three defenders in one move. Now he's in the box, and we're all thinking the same thing. Please don't shoot, please don't shoot. And would you Adam and Eve it, he doesn't (in his post-match interview he made the point that if he had looked up and seen Dyki, he would've shot) and instead he only pulls an amazing by-line cut back out of the locker, finding NATHAN EVES, who brilliantly swivel volleys it in with his left foot. Boom - 2-0 and just about game over.

The final 20 minutes were a case of digging in, with Pat and Nathan working their socks off in midfield, and the 5's saw it out to run out deserved 2-0 winners. Overall a great performance to go into the Christmas break with! James Doyle

FOUR'S WINNING RUN COMES TO AN END AGAINST LOCAL RIVALS 4th XI 1 West Wickham 2

The 4th XI went into Saturday's fixture feeling confident, but under no illusions that this game would go a long way to deciding whether or not we would be able to win the league. Despite missing a couple of key players, we still put together a strong side and all of the pre match talk was about putting things right from an opening day defeat.

West Wickham started very well and it took us a while to get to grips with their fast passing and moving. Unfortunately for us this resulted in them scoring inside the first ten minutes, and then again from a corner ten minutes later. However, this second goal seemed to give us the wake-up call that we desperately needed.

The always strong Scott Bradley was growing increasingly in the game, turning their full backs with dangerous balls down the channels. It was, however, a more basic long throw in that pulled us one back. Taken by Bradley, a Sam James flick on found MATT KNIGHT, who emphatically lobbed the keeper to make it 2-1 and give us a bit of a life- line.

At half time we brought on Jacques Abdou and the game really turned in our favour, with our having the majority of the ball and putting the infamous Hawes Down slope to good use. They could not handle the trickery of Adbou, who was regularly showing their defenders his heels and carving out a number of chances, most notably a Sam James shot from outside the area, forcing the 'keeper into a good save. At the other end our defence were holding strong with Ian 'Chunk, Safest hands in south London' Wellman making a number of good save, forcing a shot onto the crossbar at one point, and making an excellent save from a one on one.

In the last ten minutes we were really pushing for the equaliser, with Abdou hitting the crossbar and a superb last ditch tackle from their defender preventing Falconer Roberts from a one on one. Unfortunately that was the last of the chances, and we could not get the equaliser that we deserved.

A well fought game from us and whilst it was a disappointing result, performances like that, against a strong side, should see us have a successful season. We just have to make sure we deliver in the Quarter Final and Semi Final of the next two games Jon Knight

"MIST" A GREAT CHANCE IN ESSEX! Old Parkonians 7th XI 2 8th XI 1

A long journey to Fairlop where there was more fog than grass! Captain Kek went for the new school approach of 3-4-3, due to our lack of defensive players.

We started off paying well with this, getting down the wings but with little end product. The formation, though, required discipline and there were times when we were not as structured as we should have been. As the half wore on, we conceded from one of the number of corners they had. In fact we contained most of them, except the one that went directly in. Ed Adams kept us in the game with some great saves and Crombie, at the back, marshalled the team and got our structure back. From this we built and managed to score through quick passing and lots of luck when crossing back and forth across the goal mouth, with PAGE getting on the score-sheet to make it 1-1.

As the second half started we gained control, with their only threat coming from a long ball. There was little in the way of chances from both sides, but we grew in confidence as they grew in frustration. We conceded from a long ball over the top of our defence but, away from that, we kept plugging away with the ball on the deck. Spreading the play from left to right helped us move up the pitch, but we could not grab a goal to take us to extra time and 2-1 was the final score.

A great performance, where everyone worked hard until the very end against a team a few leagues above us... Nevertheless we could have won. Himish Patel

BEST PERFORMANCE OF THE SEASON SEES UNBETAEN RUN END 3rd XI 3 Alexandra Park 4

The 3rd XI turned up to fortress Hayes on a foggy December Saturday, and a spattering of Christmas jumpers were on display in anticipation of the touted post victory festive beers.

In the changed kit of red and blue, the Wilson's boys started as strong as usual in recent weeks, crisply knocking the ball around, albeit without really getting in behind an opposition defence that was generally better than the standard we have faced in the last few weeks.

Ten minutes in and a free kick just inside our half was conceded. Not one for the purists, and maybe part inspired by the season of giving, maybe part inspired by the red and blue school of defending, but the lack of TV cameras will have come as a blessing for the 'keeper, letting one slip through that he won't want to relive too many times! A bit of a freak goal but one we were confident of rectifying. The silly season would put paid to that, however. Alexandra won a corner a few minutes later and, as the ball came in, a fall from their centre back saw the ball hit the back of his head and somehow find the top corner. Even the scorer did not know what he'd done!

Never mind, we have won from losing positions twice in the last two weeks and the belief was high that we could do so again. Sure enough, five minutes before half time Matt Williams got behind the defence after a nice ball over the top from the impressive Joe Kirby and unselfishly squared for DAN SEARLE, who duly took a touch and slotted under the 'keeper - 2-1.

Cue one of the best team goals you are likely to see at Hayes. Starting from our goalkeeper, a short ball to Josh Mackley at right back played in to centre midfield, one touch dropped back to Kirby who, first time, sprayed out to the left back position, where Tommy Highwood coolly and immediately played up the line to Harwood, who "held down the L2 button" to strengthen his defender, before back-heeling to Tommy, who had continued to run up the line on the overlap, and, upon receiving , expertly delivered a ball in from deep to the back stick where DAN SEARLE controlled a half volley in to complete an outstanding team move. Half time. Phew.

The team talk consisted of wanting the game more, being committed and focused to pressing high and switching the ball from one wing to the other to get the joy. If we could get the next goal, we stood a great chance of winning the game.

Sure enough, and following ten minutes of dominance, a switch of play saw us draw a foul on Mackley, who took the resulting free kick from just inside our half. Looking for the head of RICKY MARTIN, a pinpoint ball falling just inside the left side of the box saw Ricky gain a couple of yards on his marker, get across and rise highest to guide his header into the far top corner, the 'keeper only helping the ball into the station - 3-2!

In control and surely the game was there for the taking. We continued to press high and were looking untroubled until the referee decided to completely disregard the offside rule and allow the opposition striker, who was a full ten yards behind the defence, to continue, chip the ball over and the ball was bundled in, despite Dave's best efforts. A bit of a change in momentum and, a short while later, the opposition broke well down the left side, cut back in and managed to force a bobbling effort into the far corner. - 3-4. Unbelievable.

An onslaught on the Alexandra Park goal ensued, a couple of good shots were blocked and we very nearly profited from an own goal attempt but, alas, our luck ran out. A first defeat since the end of October, but the team are playing incredibly well. We do need to stop conceding, though, and once we sort this out, the assault on the league will become infinitely easier.

At the half way stage, young Nathan Tanner experienced his first dirty pint. Having taken an hour to finish it, we don't think it'll be one he forgets in a hurry! 'Man of the match' went to Tommy Highwood for, amongst other things, assist of the season so far. Ricky Martin
