Men Of The Hill

Its good to talk. Its ok, not to be ok.

Several Old Boys and Club members have set up a Facebook group during these difficult times.

Talking about how we feel is something we all find hard to do whether you are a Man or a Woman.

About

This group has been set up to help anyone connected to the Wilsonian Sports club, whether they be friends of friends or family members.

Private

Only members can see who's in the group and what they post.

Not So Old Boys

Kicking taboo out of the game

After meeting through football and becoming a close knit group of friends.

They decided to launch a podcast to discuss taboo topics and just let the world know what it's like to play on Saturday football.

Super Vets X1 vs SE London Arts Network Won 5 – 2. Sunday 15th April 2024

This biannual game is held in memory of Kirk Benjamin who took his own life six years ago leaving behind four children and wife Sophie who was carrying Isla at the time.
It's held against the SE London Arts Network are a mental health charity supported by our life President Mike Pike with any proceeds being donated to them.
There has been a bit of a renascence in Vets and Super Vets football over the last few years and this fixture always has an excess of players which produce a decent side which has resulted in a 100% win record. However, the day is much bigger than the result, but SE Arts Network introduced a couple of new players which made the fixture competitive this year.
Co-incidentally about a week beforehand Alex Forbes confirmed that the game would mark 1080 appearances for Bruce Graham if he also played for the sixes on Saturday, which, of course he duly did!
Why so important, well aside being a remarkable figure for Old Boys and Amateur football where we average no more than thirty games a season, it meant Bruce would have the record appearances for a player in our history since 1888.
He had already overtaken our two other one thousand plus players Lou Barry and Terry Adams but this game would also eclipse Geoff Robinson who made 1079 appearances.
Another interesting fact was that Bruce stood on ninety-eight goals for the club, so near to that golden century.
So, the scene was set, and Bruce supported by Kim, Natalie, two Grandchildren and other family members walked onto the pitch through a guard of honour.
Kirks wife Sophie was also present with daughters Sienna and Isla to watch proceedings and watch 'Daddies friends'. Unfortunately, Sophie had also lost her Father very recently having lost her Mum a couple of years ago. It was lovely to hear that Isla although only five loved playing football and was known at school for her ferocious tackling, just like Dad! Sienna preferred Barbie.

It was also good to hear that Kirks children by his first partner were doing well, eldest son heading to university whilst his daughter had left the Royal Bethlem Hospital and was now living in assisted living. Other members of the family were unable to get along, but Mum Pauline sent her best wishes.

Another coincidence had arisen when Sophie had a business phone call a few weeks ago with a major hedge fund manager in New York. In the conversation Wilsons somehow came up and he remarked on the name Benjamin, yes it was Paul Britton who had financed the new school wing which contains the Kirk Benjamin welfare room – small world!
Back to the game, after Big Ron 'Doug Forbes' rallying team talk the Supers immediately pinned the Arts Network back and after a challenge by Will Davies the ball popped up to – you guessed it Bruce GRAHAM who hit a left foot volley into top bins! Scenes at Hayes Hill, the crowd went wild, limbs flying… Having played a lot with Bruce over the years I don't think I've seen him hit a sweeter volley and this was on his left foot as well!
The Supers settled down and soon added a second when Si ELLIOT scored from a tight angle. The Arts network were very much in the game and scored a good goal before Dan HARRIS received an incisive pass from Greg Middleton before hitting a stunning cross shot (being generous) which found its way into the back of the net. The Supers were playing well, and a Steve Holmes shot after a jinking run crashed off the crossbar to safety whilst Mark Pope, 'Nibbles' and Chris Lovelock kept things tight at the back.

The first wave of substitutions followed with Chunk and Chunk II going up top and although the game slowed down there were chances at both ends before the break with Andy POPE making some good saves.
The second half witnessed one of the best goals seen at Hayes for a while (well since Bruce Grahams first half volley) when Dave MCLEISH latched onto the ball thirty yards out after a Dan Hickey challenge. The shot with the outside of the right foot unerringly flew into the net off the post, a ‘worldly’ I think they call them these days, others less kindly suspected a toe-punt!
Four One became four two as the Arts Network got back into the game and it stayed that way until the 79th minute (of 80) … cue dramatic music.
We hadn’t had much luck with headers to this point, Doug Smart coming close on a couple of occasions so when Dave McLeish wriggled past a couple of defenders he shaped his cross away from Doug towards the far post, and who came running in to gleefully head home, none other than Bruce GRAHAM scoring his 100th goal for the club, magnificent timing and not a dry eye on the touchline!

So, in the history of OWFC there has been memorable moments but perhaps we won't witness an afternoon like this ever again at the club. Bruce has been a superb ambassador for the football club since the mid 1970's and this was a perfect way to end the game as our Ref Phil Gilmore blew time at the end of 'Bruces game '.
The pictures at the end of the game speak a thousand words as we celebrated the day, Mike Pike said a few well spoken words and Sienna and Isla proudly held 'Daddies Cup', whilst Bruce posed with the family.
Well done all, a very special day.

Won 5 – 2 Graham 2, McLeish, Harris, Elliot.

Pikey's Progress: The day history was made

The man of the moment miraculously appeared from a wheelie bin to discover a guard of honor had been formed by the OW Super Vets and Arts Network as they prepared to do battle for the Kirk Benjamin Memorial trophy. Wife Kim started the video rolling, enthusiastically supported by other members of the family. So what was the occasion? This was Bruce Graham's 1080th appearance for the OWS, thereby making him the highest capped player in its 136 year history. Quite early in the game Bruce found himself just inside/outside the penalty area and a left volley saw the ball scorch the back of the net to make it 2-1 to the Super Vets soon after Arts Network had scored a neat equaliser to cancel out the OW's opener.

The latter then established a 4-2 lead but there was less than five minutes left for play when the (other) momentous moment arrived. Not only had Bruce broken a club record by playing more games than anyone else, he was also on 98 goals before kick-off which had become 99 with that left-foot volley, and a perfect cross saw Bruce with the simple task of heading the ball into the back of the net – even Doug Smart would have scored; and apologies for the exaggeration! The crowd went wild – they had been pretty angry for some time – and a beaming Bruce was mobbed by his equally delighted team mates. The final whistle prevented Bruce from the possibility of scoring a hat-trick – before the game it had been agreed that if the OWs were awarded a penalty then he would take it – but this did not prove to be necessary. Bruce played for 11 OW sides, the nine league teams and the Vets and Super Vets, but played mostly for the 1st XI, 447 times, scoring 26 goals - strangely we were rarely team mates!

Bruce had played the day before for the 6th XI - two games in two days is (more than) enough for an extremely fit 20 year old, let alone a man of 68, and when asked after the game how long he would like to continue playing for he said: "I would like to be playing at 70" , by which time he will have played well over 1,100 and have done so for 49 years; better play at least one more year, Bruce, to make it a round 50!

It was appropriate that this magnificent achievement was achieved as we remembered Kirk, and it was so good to see Sophie and the children, although the former's initial reaction when I claimed to be 97 was a little disturbing, and thanks to Arts Network for providing the opposition They are regular visitors to Hayes – we have played them twice a season for a number of years – and thanks to Matthew Couper in particular, who organises their team, despite the fact that he no longer works for the project. All of the match fees were donated to said project, which helps those with severe and enduring mental health issues, and the game raised £235 to add to the enormous amount of money we have given them over the years, thanks to the generosity of the Super Vets, who are sponsored by 'Men of the Hill' - as in Hayes Hill – who also do great work in helping those with mental health problems and whose mantra is "It's okay to not be okay" - please speak to them if you need to. You can find a profile of Bruce, most of the material for which was provided by the man himself, in the latest football newsletter, and a word of thanks and praise here for Mark Pope, who has produced this essential reading throughout the season.The profile is also on the home page of the OW's website, but here are a few highlights explaining why Bruce has been an outstanding member of the Club both on and off the field: He was Chairman of Ways and Mean Committee for seven years and OWFC President for two He became a regular member of the 1st XI in his second season and went on to make 447 appearances and was their player of the season in the 1986/87 season Was part of the 4th XI's double winning team of 2004/05 when he was also voted their player of the season

Thanks to Phil Gilmore who refereed and awarded a penalty to Arts Network, and such is his shrewd reading of the game of football that he knew that Bruce would score the two goals he needed for his 100 without such assistance - not that Phil would have manufactured such a situation. This was the penultimate weekend of the season for the OWFC - we are staging Cup Finals on both Saturday and Sunday next week – so let us all take the opportunity of thanking Jasper and his magnificent bar staff for quenching our thirst and to Sally and her equally magnificent team for providing such splendid food throughout the season for us to enjoy after games.

After this game Bruce was presented with the match ball, signed by the participants, to mark his magnificent achievement and we look forward to seeing him in OW colours for many games, and years, to come, including this particular encounter when Arts Network return in October in a game that means so much to the Benjamin family and to the Old Wilsonians' family, i.e. all of us as well

Chris Kennedy and Mark Pope played for a Sutton United Vets team v Sheerwater Vets team that include Barry Hayles (ex Fulham) and Sean Davis (ex Spurs, Fulham and Portsmouth), Chris scored the opening goal for SUFC with Sheerwater too strong, who ended up winning 8-4, it was great to be back at a club we both played for many years ago and the OWFC Vets play a friendly at the VBS Community Stadium, on Sunday 28th April, kick off at 11am

BATTLING PERFORMANCE AGAINST PROMOTED SIDE Old Sinjuns 4 4th Xl 1

A much depleted 4th Xl side took the field against Sinjuns on a bouncy, bobbly pitch which was not conducive to our short passing game. We were soon 2-0 down, due to the fact that we did not seem to start playing until after the second goal went in, but we defended resolutely for the rest of the half, which seemed to unsettle Sinjuns who had assumed they were there for a stroll in the park.
We continued strongly in the second half and reduced the deficit when STEVE JEROME latched onto a long pass from Graham Nelson and lifted the ball exquisitely over the ‘keeper’s head into the net.
There was further outstanding defending with no less than three chances being cleared off the line by Tony Higgins and James Hudson; twice. However, and with the game in the balance, a defensive lapse allowed Sinjuns a third goal and, soon after, they added a fourth.
Nevertheless, with a reduced side, against a Sinjuns team that clinched promotion with this victory, this was a good battling performance which says a lot for our team spirit. The missing players gave me an excuse to play myself in the centre of midfield, thus completing the full set for the season.

And so another season comes to an end

This will be the last regular newsletter of the 1998/99 season – there will be the occasional issue during the summer – so there are a number of people whose efforts on our behalf deserve our thanks.
Ed Harris, and all at ‘Goldhawk Reprographics’ limited for turning the newsletter round each week; OWA President Pete Davis, reliable as ever in his provision of envelope labels; Neil Kendrick who dispatched the newsletters on a weekly basis; Dave Valder and Andy Kirchin, who gave me the basic ingredients – results and fixtures – for these pages; Steve Skelton and Phil Horn who, on behalf of the 4th and 6th Xls respectively, submitted regular reports.
The 5th Xl were not far behind them in this regard, with the likes of Dave Stewart, Terry Adams and Geoff Robinson pulling them into line.
Next season there are proposed changes to the newsletter, with the possibility of some of you recieving it via email.
In the meantime, have a great summer and don’’t forget the AGM on Tuesday April 27th

SNORTING VICTORY KEEPS 4THS ON TRACK 4th XI 5 Old Josephians 0

The 4th XI continued their winning run against a rather disinterested Josephians' team who were already relegated and playing their last game of the season. Perhaps, because of this lack of a challenge, we were too relaxed in the first half, passing the ball about nicely without really threatening our opponents goal.
The one goal of the first half came when GARAHAM NELSON received the ball in space on the right, cut into the penalty area and drilled the ball into the corner.
The second half saw us being more direct and having a little more luck, and STEVE SKELTON scored our second from close range following a Mick Hughes shot after the latter had made a good run into the box.
Unfortunately Steve followed his goal with and unseemly 'Fowleresque' line snorting celebration for which he will be fined £32,000, payable directly to himself! He will also receive a three months ban, the months being May, June and July. The third goal came from a Steve Skelton corner to the far post which was headed back by Mick Hughes and tapped in from one yard by STEVE JEROME - we think that Steve scores all of his goals from this sort of range because, if he is any further out, he cannot kick the ball hard enough to reach the goal!
Kit Hollis was unlucky with a rasping drive which hit the bar but RUSSEL McBRIDE, who was dominant in midfield throughout, got the rub of the green when a shot, which looked likely to hit the bar or go over, was somehow deflected into the net by the flapping arm of Josephians' substitute goal-keeper, who had gone in goal after complalining that he could not play on the field because he could not run. It strikes me that, if we applied this rule in our Club, we would have an awful lot of 'keepers! (As opposed to a lot of awful 'keepers? - ed)
We got a fifth goal when the ball broke loose to STEVE JEROME, who shot home from the edge of the box.
With two games left promotion is probably out of the question, but a fourth place finish is our target and would be a very creditable outcome to the season. Steve Skelton

ALL OUR YESTERDAYS – 50 YEARS AGO
The Secretary reports

Once again the Harris report reaches you, be it belated for the 73/74 season or premature for 74.75, and now that August is here, the new season will soon be upon us, a season of great expectations with all teams hoping for a victor's rostrum somewhere in the future.
The holidays are still with us but we must remove the odd pounds that have found their way onto our lithe bodies during the summer months.
The AGM once again proved to be a lively and long forum, with many rules passed, placing a great deal of responsibility on the broad backs of the captains and vice-captains, and with this ever increasing work-loads these members will need all the help you can give them, mainly in such matters as making prompt payments of fees without argument.
The following were elected at our AGM and have accepted these post within the Club for the 1974/75 season:

Life Honorary President: George Croucher
President: Nick Carter
Vice Presidents: W. Bowden, F. Stanley-Brown, H. Cooper, N. Friskney, A. Keen, P. Fitzsimmons, F. Laing, C; Lucking, T. Richardson, F. Taylor, C. Holder, R.E McAlister
Secretary: Mike Harris
Treasurer: Tony Maunder
Team Secretary: Alan Fielder
Captains: 1st Xl: Bill Morley Vice-Captain: Mick Pilgrim
2nd Xl: Ray Jenkins Vice-Captain: Steve Smith
3rd Xl: Malcolm Taylor Vice-Captain: Ray Howell
4th Xl: Alan Fielder Vice-Captain: To be elected
5th Xl: John Houghton Vice-Captain: To be elected
6th Xl: Dave Wellman Vice-Captain: Ray Bayliss

The Executive Committee, which deals with the day to day running of the Club, is made up of the following:
Captains, Vice-Captains, Secretary, Treasurer, plus the following elected members: Gerry Reaseley, John Brittain, George Carrington, Pat Johnson, Rod Hall and Colin Hand, so if you have any worries about the running of the Club, these are the people to approach. The fund-raising committee, which has the considerable task of improving our financial situation, will this year consist of: Pat Johnson, Paul Kidd, Dave Wellman, Chris Cowell and John Matthews, so please talk to one of them if you have any fund-raising ideas.
Last season we won the K.B. Elbourne Plaque, which is awarded for sportsmanship, and this will be put on the wall in the Presidents Lounge. We won it because our players played the game cleanly and entertained match officials and opponents after games. This is the second time we have won this award and it would be a great feather in the Club's cap if we could do so again this season.
We proved last year that a Club can both win medals, gain promotion and yet still play football that is also good, clean and fair, and the name of Old Wilsonians has begun to reach the ears of the league's governing body, and our football ability and hospitality reputations even made the pages of 'The Evening News', so let us build on this and go forward from strength to strength.
Finally, may I say to you all that, whichever team you play in, I hope you enjoy your football for this is our main aim in running the Club and to satisfy your need for football and comradeship with old friends. As long as we keep football as our main objective, we can all feel proud to be members of a Club that is growing in stature each season, so let's make the name OLD WILSONIANS known through-out the football world. Mike Harris
