3s v Bank of England League, Home 1 - 5

3s lost to the side who are currently bottom of the league, but are still top of the league.
(Sounds like a Christmas riddle, Ed) Elliot Tiffin via Whatsapp

6s v HSBC, League, Home 3 - 4

Looking for our first win since God was a boy, the 6s were in cup action against HSBC on the hallowed turf of Hayes. Facing opponents who lost to our own 8s last week, we fancied our chances.

Those hopes soon took a dent after two defensive errors in quick succession saw us 2-0 down.

The second half was much improved and we pulled one back, after excellent work from James Gilbert on the wing, setting up Greg Marr to reduce the deficit. HSBC scored again in controversial circumstances - their striker clearly controlled the ball with his hand, and the young ref saw it, but was seemingly unaware of the rule change!

We pulled another goal back through Sam James, HSBC quickly for another, then a penalty for us was cooly converted by Steve Benwell. We totally dominated the second half and would have won the game, but for the refereeing. (They are human too and sometimes make a mistake, Ed)

Hopefully, things will go our way in the New Year

Last league game of the season saw the Classico return to Hayes for the 8thXI Vs the 7th XI (Well most of them) and despite being caught cold very early on with a quick swivel and strike by the oppositions ever versatile Will Davies it was a great first half with us seeming to have the better chances and winning most of battles all around the pitch in a great contest that felt very even. Despite the 0-1 half time score the 2nd half started badly and 2 quick goals put the 7th XI on the back foot and despite pulling back 2 goals and contesting hard the score settled at 2-6 by the end. Despite this, the first half and the energy and commitment levels overall are definitely big positives to see and something to build on going into the new year and we look forward to the challenge as we close the year out mid table.

PEACE KEEPING FORCE SEES HOME VICTORY 1st Xl 5 Clapham Old Xvarians 1

Spirits were high in the changing room and a sense of security filled the atmosphere. Was it the fact that Adam Goddard had been restored to the right-back position? I think not; it was more the fact that Danny Webb had arrived with only 15 minutes left before kick-off.

"Kendo' was in his usually talkative mood and the team started the strongest we have seen all season and, within 15 minutes, we found ourselves two up with goals from "KENDO" and RICHARD EGAN, a couple of quality finishes which was not to set the standard throughout the match!

Some blinding moves resulted in chance after chance and we were really on top, the pity being that the forwards could not convert.

Clapham were reduced to ten men when one of their players clashed heads with Danny Webb. Fortunately he, Danny Webb, carried on whilst the Clapham player ended up in hospital. Then a fine move resulted in a fine cross from Danny Gilbertson and a fine header from RICHARD EGAN brought our tally to three – all in all a great goal.

In the second half we came under a bit of pressure which resulted in Clapham scoring a dubious goal. Tempers started to fray but we managed to keep our heads, thanks to Carl Burgess's diplomatic relations.

Two more goals from ROLAND TOWNSON and we were home and dry. A well-deserved win. Result? "A happy 'Kendo' and 'Roly' was 'Man of the match.' Danny Webbs

"A GOOD TEAM PERFORMANCE" 4th Xl 2 Old Meadonians 1

We played at Hayes, courtesy of the 3rd Xl, who had their game postponed, and were matched against an unbeaten Meadonians side. The pitch was heavy and we started very positively, playing some good football and generally containing them in their half and it was no surprise, after several promising moves, when the ball fell to DAVE NELMES on the edge of the box and he stroked a 'bobbler' into the far corner.

Further pressure did not yield any further goals in the first half whilst their only chance was well saved by Kelvin Wing.

No sooner had the second half kicked off when a move down the left saw Dave Nelmes cross the ball to IAN HAINES and, with a defender standing off the ball, Ian found the roof of the net. Meadonians then put us under a great deal of pressure for the rest of the second half but some great goal-keeping kept them at bay.

The only disappointment was a late goal from Meadonians that spoilt Kelvin's clean sheet jug. All in all another great performance by all of those who played, but special mention should be made of Kelvin Wing, who had his best game of the season.

Finally thanks to Terry Adams for refereeing the game, which he controlled very well, and we were grateful to drink his match fee. Si' Kidd

Following their first league defeat of the season last week, the 1st Xl spent much of the first half rushing around at a furious pace in an effort to regain their winning form. The defence rarely looked like giving a goal away, but there was a lack of cohesion up front, probably due to the insistence of Terry Adams and Dave Bartlett, who stayed back to stop the opposition scoring.

Grammarians used the wings to good effect and looked more dangerous than ourselves, but the highlight of the first half was Les Simner's passing.

In the second half the 1st Xl were justly rewarded with two goals, the first coming after a cross from the left was lunged at by JAMIE JENNINGS and their full-back and the ball floated over the head of the helpless goal-keeper. The second came from a high cross from Gerry Reaseley. Jamie Jennings ran in to challenge the 'keeper and his header went to CHRIS THRELFALL, who pushed the ball home.

Old Grammarians replied and scored following a defensive mistake as a floating centre drew out Brian Wells, Bill Burgoyne and Mike Kendrick, all of whom missed it, and an open net was waiting. Wilson's never again found their earlier form but a swirling 25 yarder from CHRIS THRELFALL found the bottom corner of the net to make the final score 3-2. Terry Fanning

The 2nd Xl's game will be forgotten for its football content as nobody managed to master the pitch and passes went astray. Plaistovians had no more idea than we did and the first half was score-less.

In the second half Ian Rayworth, who had been telling Ian Forbes that he should be playing centre-forward, scored the best goal ever seen at this ground as he collected the ball in great style and lobbed it beautifully over Si' Wills head and under the cross-bar!

Play got worse until ALAN CARPENTER, who had already hit a post, scored with a great shot on the run, a just reward for his play. Ian Forbes showed great defensive skill, standing on his own goal-line and heading the ball with tremendous power straight to one of the opposition, who shot wide. Anon

On a slopping pitch at Coneyhall the 3rd Xl never came up to expectations.

In the first half we showed no real spirit until we were two goals down and LOU BARRY then scored a good goal and MIKE HARRIS then chased through to score with his left foot to level the scores and we turned round thinking that we could win.

However, in the second half, our play became erratic and even a penalty was missed by Ted Gibbons, who placed the ball wide of the 'keeper but did not hit it strongly enough to clear his lunging hands.

The side then went to pieces but Len Brown and Lou Barry, those two little 'Bs', must be congratulated for their perseverance at this stage. The final score was 2-5 to Lattymerians, this being a fair reflection of the play and it can only be hoped that our next league appearance will bring forth a little more spirit from the team as a whole. ALL OUR YESTERDAY'S - 50 YEARS AGO

Mention must also be made of 'Old Man McAlister', who always tackled hard and played through-out the game with vigour and great effort. Ted Gibbons
