We go again in 2020 /21, our 132nd season, founded 1888.
The golf day in August attracted over 70 players (I hesitate to call them all golfers!).
Thanks to Barney and Brian Stapleton at APGC, it was a great success. 2k RAISED for the Club.
Winner was Master Tom Cowell who didn't even get booked! Well done sir & Dad Chris who promised to buy everyone a drink if his son won. Wooden spoon (club) was a certain Richard Smart, popular winner!

The Maltese Falcon Tour has been rescheduled for Bank Holiday May Day weekend 2021 with over 30 on the plane(s). Just £100 secures your place one of the last six places and books your flight ticket from Gatwick (or Southend!) early am Friday 30th April returning on Sunday 2nd May (Monday 3rd BH). (Slide 4)

1's Pre Season Report 2020

Date: August 1st
Match: Snodland Town Reserves vs Old Wilsonians 1's
Score: 1-1

After months of no action a mixed Old Wilsonians 1's team began their 2020/21 pre season away at Snodland Town Reserves.
In a game that lacked any overall quality, Wilson's took the lead after a turnover in possession in the Snodland half, which saw Airdrie break through on goal only to be brought down for a penalty. The penalty was calmly converted by Conduah into the bottom right corner. 1-0 Wilsons.
Despite the goal the game struggled to get into any real rhythm, however on the 40 minute mark a break down the left side from Snodland saw the ball get worked into the forward where with little encouragement he fell to the ground and won Snodland a penalty. Wilsons were not happy with the decision as earlier in the break the ball appeared to be clearly out of play. However, the penalty stood and the Snodland player stepped up and fired home to make it 1-1. HT.
In a competitive second half, both teams struggled to create any clear cut chances however Wilsons did have Matt Powely to thank for a stretching save which kept the to keep the score line 1-1. FT.

1's Pre Season Report 2020, West Wickham.....A tale of two match reports

Wilsons Home Lost 1 – 3 The West Wickham View 15/8.

Saturday didn't start well and gradually got worse. Andy Foster's First Team squad against Old Wilsonians lost ace schemer Josh Kennedy early morning as his Swab Test after isolating did not arrive and Mark Williams's car broke down on route from Reading. Luckily the Reserves were also at home to Wilsons so he could use two of Chris Tookey's squad.
It didn't end there, as keeper John Chisholm pulled a thigh muscle taking a goal kick early in the game and had to retire at half time with midfielder Joe Kelly volunteering to take the gloves.
Josh Tutt gave us the lead and we should certainly increased it before Wilsons equalised. It ended 3 – 1 to the visitors but, once again, we wasted plenty of chances with George Maw and Connor Byrne both going close – McGeary, Muzza and Charlie K persisted in trying to walk the ball over the line.
The Reserves fared better beating Old Wilsonians 2 – 0 with goals from Sam Kemp and Chris Eadon – you could say that normal service had resumed after the mid season break.

West Wickham Away Won 3 – 1 Played 15/8.
The game started off as fixtures against them had in the past, Wickham moved the ball pretty well and ended up finding the net in the first fifteen minutes.
As the half went on the boys started to move the ball better, finding a lot of space on the wings and eventually after forgetting he was playing centre back Serge stepped into the middle with the ball and sprayed a glorious 40 yard ball into the path of Ben Gilo Giles who took a delicious first touch to take it round the keeper. 1-1.
First half ends and the boys are ready to start off where they left off.
With strong possession and limiting Wickham to very few chances we piled the pressure on and yet another ball in behind saw Gilo in on goal before he was brought down in the box, penalty!!! After getting the call from Dan on the sidelines Conrad Condulah stepped up and calmly slotted the ball in the bottom corner, turning into quite the goalscorer I must say.
Chances keep on coming, Matt Powley makes some saves, Gilo fluffs some chances, Ally makes a lot of noise, water is wet, nothings new.
Oh and we win the game 3-1. Up the 1s.
