OLD WILSONIANS FOOTBALL CLUB

SEASON 2019/20 NEWSLETTER NO. 24

All reports and news by 7pm Sunday

Stupowfc@gmail.com

Another week of curtailed fixtures due to the wet weather.

The 1s narrowly lost at home to table topping West Wickham who are grinding out 1 0 wins to keep themselves title favourites. Poly and Nottsborough have a lot of work and double headers to catch them now.

The 4s played the 5s with the latter coming out on top in an improved sporting encounter than the fists meeting. The 5s remain top but the SAL may well decide the final outcomes. Both teams records are pretty close aside from their two meetings so I hope common sense prevails but a re jig of sides will be required next year to comply with sectional strength rules.

The 6s again made it difficult for Old Blues but came away empty handed so the 7s provided the other ray of sunshine as their title tilt continues with another 3 – 0 win.

The vets was called off due to Coronavirus fears (yes really!)

In 'All our Yesterdays' 25 years ago, the Ed played his last game for the 1s(?) and wrote the report! I also offered to wash the kit and blow dry Neil Kendrick's hair but it didn't get me picked again, sad face.

50 years ago Mike Kendrick was pulling the strings in the 1s title chase with Gerry Reaseley leading the line. A goal for Ian Forbes and Yogi Taylor in the 2s as well.

Have a good week, Ed.

4s v 5s…1 - 3….View from the Chunk

The day arrived and we travelled to fortress Hayes to thrash out an interclub derby against the 4's.

A win would all but seal promotion for us and a win for them would restore some pride.

The 5's played in the home strip whilst the 4's sportingly played in the Palace colour change strip. Music playing in the changing room and the boys seem fully focused on the battle ahead. Morley carried out the warmup and we was (were) ready.

The match started off tightly and their nippy striker nipped in to make it 1-0 with a cool spotted finish. (GUESSING Chris Kennedy?

We kept our heads and pushed on, ADEBAYO then smashed in a banger after great work from big Tass.

As a similar pattern started to unfold in this game as the first fixture with our central midfield players and centre forwards bossing the game and the oppo chasing shadows.

We then scored again through DRAME who scored a whipped worldie with his left from the edge of the area. We went in to half time 2–1 up but bossing things and was happy.

Second half more of the same as our goalkeeper wasn't being tested but he did have to reach for his crossbar on several occasions to check if the ball was going above the height of the goal frame.

Now we knew this was an interclub game but as our French wizard DRAME ran through 5 opposition players including the keeper several of them tried pulling his shorts and pants down yet he wasn't up for that sort of action just yet and he made sure he was too big and powerful and smashed the ball in the net. 3-1 up and we was (were) cruising, or so we thought.

The ref awarded a penalty to them after their nippy striker Daley went down in the box. A great save from big Tay in goal pushed the ball on to the post and it remained 3-1.

Sam James then cleared one off the line and James Paton made a commanding clearance from our area as they looked threatening.

Morley was then lucky to get away with what looked a blatant handball and the game was done (over).

A good battle and we all enjoyed a beer together in the clubhouse. We then headed on a Beckenham bar crawl followed by a boogie in the aquarium known as Bridge Bar and our days work was done.

6s v Old Blues , Away, 2 – 4
“Listen Buster, watch it or I’ll bang you”

The 6s travelled to Richmond in desperate need for a win against team they rescued a draw from in the reverse fixture despite being 4-0 down.

They started well, producing several chances, the best of which came after Fox played a defence splitting pass to Rand who pulled it back for Stride who, after an awkward bobble and pressure from the CB could only blaze over.

The 6s found themselves behind shortly after a mishit cross cannoned off the crossbar and found it’s way into the back of the net off their strikers face. Unlucky.

We reset well but once again conceded after a sliced shot agonisingly crept into the bottom right out of reach from a flailing Dan Robbins.

We continued to battle, with Adam Benwell completing a hat trick of headers in the midfield, his screams of “ADAAAAMS” terrifying the opposition midfielders.

To add insult to injury they added a third before half time after a through ball down the wing which was almost certainly offside but not detected by the ref.

After a rousing half time team talk we started well but were caught again to make it 4-0. Once again we needed a miracle but without Drew Strong on the sidelines to get in their CBs head it was a tough ask.

Hope was sparked when great work from Fox on the wing stood a ball up at the back post for Stride to nod in. 4-1.

We started to control the game and after a defensive clearance from Old Blues, Stride latched on and pile drived (Not sure you can use that but it sounds like a piledriver, Ed) the ball into the bottom left corner. 4-2.

The comeback was looking on but we were dealt a major blow when Steve Benwell had to be stretchered off after injuring his ankle. Their CB, who had previously warned Steve that he “would bang him” in a posh, Twickenham accent, felt safer as he left the field now that he wouldn’t have to back up his words. (Hence the witty title, Ed)

We continued to battle but were frustrated as 50:50s didn’t fall for us. The miracle could not be repeated. We need to win our remaining 5 games to have a chance of staying up, COY6s.

Old Wilsonians 7XI Vs Actonians 8s, Home, League, 3 – 0

Winners don't wait for chances, they take them!!

With Civil Service 7's once again not playing a league game this weekend, it was time for us to continue our momentum by beating Actonian 8's.

It was 1st vs 3rd, the two team with the best defences in the league. The stakes couldn't be any bigger, win and we we'll be in touching distance of the league title. With a stacked team of attacking players on show this week, there was questions on who would be controlling the defence.

The game started with Old Wilsonians dominating the opening moments of the game, creating numerous chances as well as causing damage on entire side of the flanks.

Old Wilsonians finally managed to land the first blow midway through the first half with Madz poking the ball just six yards out after an error from their defender in the box to give us the lead we deserved.

We went into the second half with more urgency, trying to wrap the game up quickly and comfortably and it managed to work as just minutes into the second half, Dyki's corner kick was comfortably headed home by Sherlock to give us a two-goal lead.

The two-goal cushion gave us more confidence as we continued to press going forward and cause damage to the opposition. Just moments after scoring, the game was finally wrapped up as Dyki's corner yet again was headed home by Will to make it 3-0. Wilsonians continued to dominate possession creating chances though Stan, Jonny Q, Fraser. Madz thought he scored his second and OW's 4th with a volley however it was ruled out for offside.

An incident involving Madz and the Actonian keeper resulted in Captain Aaron having to make tactical substitutions so that Madz didn't lose his head.

With the subs coming on to see out the game, there was little life left for Actonian with the away side failing to have an effort on goal, the final whistle blew, and it ended 3-0 to Old Wilsonians 7's who keep the charge for the championship.

Team: Doug (GK), Aaron (C), Madz, Dyki, Jonny Q, Fraser, Stan, Leyton, Kenny, Sam F, Kevin, Will, Chibu, Sherlock

Corinthian Casuals Schools XI v Wilson's School, Saturday 8th February 2020, 1-1

After months of being asked by former Corinthian Casuals team mate I was finally available to play for Corinthian Casuals schools XI (who have regular fixtures that go back to 1882) against the current Wilson's school 1st XI , run by Chris Wells (with thin Andy Parkinson watching too), at Mollison Drive and it was good to see the school turning out another solid team and they took a 1-0 lead at half time from a corner with Casuals equalising through a well taken equaliser with almost the last kick of the match. The school in are the national quarter finals and still in the county cups and hopefully they can do better than the 1990 school 1st XI, skippered by Nick Billing and featuring two future pro's in Paul Whitmarsh and Andy Scott, and get to the national final and win the Surrey cup final by more than 10-1!

(10 – 1 v Croydon College at Sutton Utd FC led by Micky Stratford, goals from Paul Whitmarsh 4, Mark Pope 4, Andy Scott 2 pens, March 1990)

Vets vs West Citz (played 26/1) 8 - 0

The OWFC Vets had their first match of 2020 v Westminster Citz.

The OWFC Vets played their annual match v Westminster Citz with a decent size and strong squad and took control of the match early and players who had lost to Old Sutts the previous were keen to make amends, especially James Karamath who was looking to control his football anger management by putting the ball in the back of the net rather than to the side of it.

OWFC took a 1-0 lead at half time with Pat Ducasse scoring while at the other end Brad Russell was on hand on the very few times Westminster Citz got past the back 4 of Reid, Pope, Smart and Billing with the midfield of Langley, Parkinson, Taylor, Carruth bossed it.

The second half the OWFC Vets stepped up the momentum as Westminster Citz started to tire and fade. Pat Ducasse scored a great second, Chris Kennedy scored to keep in touch with the clubs top scorers, James Karamath scored 2, James Taylor, Jon Howe and Doug Smart completed the goal fest.

Comedy and other moments included Si Elliott finally back and putting in some top draw crosses, James Taylor missing with his knee from a yard, some comedy Tikka Takka football in the corner, Pat Ducasse pulled off at least one trade mark back heel, Jon Howe had a shot blocked by Jamie Parkinson and Doug Smart won MOM mainly because he executed the slowest moving step over dummy ever seen at the club but still caught out the Westminster Citz centre forward.

MOM - Doug Smart Report - Popey

THE GAME THAT EVENTUALLY WAS Old Ignatians 3 1st Xl 2

A perfect, crisp, sunny March day. A heavy but playable pitch and a debut in goal for the 1st Xl by Darryl Galvin and……a return for Stu' Paton to the giddy heights of Premier action against Ignatians, last year's champions, a stern test after the mid-season weather break

The first 20 minutes were dominated by the home side and it was no surprise when they took the lead following an in-swinging corner, which was headed back across the goal to be chested home

It was encouraging that the 1s came back into the game after this, Stu' Paton not quite connecting from a Kendrick cross and Roly Townsend having a powerful drive parried by the 'keeper, the ball dissecting three gold shirts following up.

The 1s looked quite dangerous from set pieces – I had naively asked beforehand "Any set pieces I should know about", which caused a few blank expressions. "Well", I had added, "there's always the Paton long throw to add to the armoury." And so it proved to be; a big throw in an easterly direction was flicked on by Kendrick for DANNY GILBERTSON to chest it under control and rifle home the equaliser. Half-time 1-1, the slope and wind in our favour in the second half

I chewed on my slice of vitamin C and listened to Neil's team talk – a very nice man, by the way. Unfortunately we were caught stone cold from the kick-off and our ball watching resulted in their centre-forward stealing in from a diagonal pass to head over Darrel and into the net

Again the 1s kept plugging away and caused problems, particularly from corners and throw-ins. Ignatians, however, were more incisive and created a third goal with 20 minutes remaining. Darryl Galvin made a good point blank save which rebounded kindly to an on-coming Ignatian forward

A real test of character now and the 1sts kept going. The nice thing about my return is to say that there are some very talented players in the 1s at the moment and, with perhaps a touch more self belief, results will come good

With five minutes remaining Stuart Paton won a challenge with two Ignatian defenders and passed square to 'Roly' who in turn rolled to NEIL KENDRICK, who rifled home from the edge of the box

Further pressure in the last five minutes brought a couple of chances which went agonisingly wide. The result was a 3-2 defeat, which might appear to some to be creditable, although I feel that, with a more positive belief, these games should yield at least a point

A subdued dressing room afterwards, interrupted only by me offering to do the kit, the match report, blow dry Neil's hair etc. To end mention must be made of Darryl Galvin's debut in goal, an excellent performance which, rightly, afforded him the 'Man of the match' accolade.

After an ineffective display last week the 1st Xl was swapped around considerably in an attempt to find a better balance and to instill greater determination throughout, and we were pleased to find a fine grassy pitch on which to play the match

We were assisted for the first 20 minutes by the home side being without their regular goal-keeper, although his deputy gave a fine account of himself. We held the initiative throughout the first half and played some good, open football. Our midfield play was far crisper and Doug Clasper in particular was constantly in the game, linking with the forwards and setting up attack upon attack. The home side were forced back on the defensive but were managing to restrict our chances to long range shooting, usually emanating from quick breaks from midfield

Soon after the arrival of their regular goal-keeper we opened the scoring. A cross from the right was headed on by Doug Clasper and Jamie Jennings, on the edge of the penalty area, clipped the ball back into the centre of the area first time and GERRY REASELEY, making a quick break on the blind side of the defence, placed his header beautifully beyond the goal-keeper

We kept up the pressure until half-time and the side as a whole was playing with a lot more cohesion and, with Mike Kendrick playing a fine positional game at the heart of the defence, City of London were not allowed to get into scoring positions

The second half, however, produced a lot more punch from City and they attempted to bustle us out of the game and this was just the sort of test that the team needed to show that there is a fire and determination when put under pressure, and play was now from end to end, with our supporters having something to shout about

An injury to Bill Morley led to a reshuffle of the defence in the middle part of the second half and, despite being put under terrific pressure for about ten minutes, the back line certainly swayed but never broke. Chris Threlfall was at the heart of every challenge in the middle and Mike Kendrick swept and tidied up firmly behind him. This, indeed, was a revitalized Mike Kendrick; he was a man in tune with his game and the rest of the defence responded to him

Gerry Reaseley was leading the forwards with a display which was at least as good as that at Mill Hill, where he scored five! He was here, there and everywhere, challenging for the ball in the air and on the deck and, to me, the finest part of his game was his fine laying off of the ball when under pressure. His example throughout the 90 minutes was the inspiration the team needed to keep pressing forward

The match was finally sewn up five minutes from the end. The hobbling Bill Morley rode painfully through a tackle and squared the ball into the box. LES SIMNER turned onto it and crashed it into the roof of the net. Immediately afterwards Jamie Jennings broke away down the right at lightning speed. Gerry Reaseley led the defence on a fool's errand far out to the right and DAVE BARTLETT stole into the gap down the middle. Jamie released the ball perfectly and Dave shot high into the roof of the net, in spite of the 'keeper's dive, which only barely deflected the flight of the ball

And so a well-deserved win was hard won. The side played the game that I have been seeking to recapture and it looks well for the future. But remember that there are still problems to be ironed out and far to go before we can fly the champions' pennant at the end of the season. Terry Adams
